

hindustantimes

hindustantimes.com

GURU SHOE TECH OPENS VALENTINO OUTLET

CITY BUZZ

Guru Shoe Tech Pvt Ltd opened its second outlet of footwear Valentino in Kamla Nagar on Sunday.

Director of Guru Shoe Tech, Chandra Daultani inaugurated the outlet. The showroom displayed complete range of footwear including formal wear, party wear, casual wear and semi casual wear.

Speaking on the occasion, Chandra said, "To provide branded products to the domestic consumers and brand lovers, the company has opened the outlet to provide luxury products to the consumers."

"India has become the destination for luxury and premium brand.

People here are keen to indulge in luxury brands that have become a lifestyle statement for many. Keeping in mind health benefits, we have avoided the use of synthetic leather. Valentino shoes are made from processed leather which prevents the foot from sweating and gives a comfortable feeling. The shoe range is affordable too," he added.

Campus placement

Heritage Institute of Hotel and Tourism organised a campus placement programme at the office of its Agra branch on Friday and Saturday.

Nakul Mohindra, assistant manager, Shitanshu Bhargava, assistant food and beverage manager of Radisson Resorts and Spa were the guests of the programme. Around 90 students participated in the interview, while around 40 were selected through the interview. Guests of the campus placement cell guided the students through presentation. The team interviewed the students for selection.

The first step was preliminary round, where, candidate had to show their skills and potential. The college management and the faculty members congratulated the selected candidates and advised them to work with full dedication to get final placement. —APOORVA SHARMA AND DIVYA GUPTA